SHOWS (Cont'd)

MID-FLORIDA CHAPTER SHOW - September 25th

The Mid-Florida Chapter did themselves proud with their show "A Decade of Beauty - 1950-1960" which was staged in the San Juan Hotel in downtown Orlando. The weather was not very cooperative but the show was very well done.

Winners were: Best Bloom of the Show - "Ruffled Beauty", grown by Steve Johnson of Orlando, who also took the Best Miniature with a "Cobby Joe". Best Commercial Double - "Mothers Day" grown by Carver & Morgan of Mt. Dora; Best Semi-Double - "Mandarin" grown by Reasoner's Tropical Nurseries of Bradenton.

Best Amateur Double - "Mrs. Viola Connery" grown by Mrs. L. T. King of Vero Beach; Best Amateur Single - "Golden Belle" grown by R. A. Bowman of Daytona Beach; Best Amateur Semi-Double - "Kathy" grown by Floyd Call, president of the Mid-Florida Chapter.

The Best Seedling was grown by McKnight's Nursery of Jacksonville. The Sweepstakes award was taken by Carver & Morgan Nursery of Mt. Dora.

-O-

* + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + *

WITH THE GOOD LORD WILLING

We have 6,000 gallon size

Hibiscus plants of 300 choice varieties

put up for early spring sales.

New price list available early in January.

15% deposit will hold orders.

BARLING'S NURSERY

Rt. #3, Box 683 - Clarcona Rd. - Orlando, Florida

WHOLESALE Phone CYpress 3-4276 RETAIL

SHOWS (Cont'd)

SUNSET CHAPTER - October 2nd.

The Sunset Chapter tried a new wrinkle in their show this year. They established a new "Collectors" class to augment the "Commercial" and "Amateur" classes. The Collectors class included any amateur exhibitors showing 35 or more blooms in competition. This new class will give the small amateur with only a few plants a chance to get a sweepstakes award.

Winners were: In the Amateur Class, Best Single - "Kanaka Girl" grown by Milton L. Marks; Gest Double- "Patricia Gautier" grown by Mrs. Tipton of Orlando; Best Semi-Double - "Veronica" grown by Herb Gilliard of Orlando who also took the Amateur Sweepstakes.

In the Collectors class, Best Single - "Lemon Chiffon" grown by R. A. Bowman of Daytona Beach; Best Double - "Elephant Ear" grown by R. A. Bowman, who also took the Best in the Show with this bloom. Best Semi-Double - "Nina Freeman" grown by Mrs. L. T. King of Vero Beach. The Collectors Sweepstakes award went to Bill Cutler of St. Petersburg.

In the Commercial Class, Best Single - "Wynn Doxsee" grown by Monroe's Hibiscus Nursery of Eagle Lake; Best Double -"Florida Sands" grown by Pagano's Nursery of Pinellas Park. The Commercial Sweepstakes also went to Pagano's Nursery.

The Best Seedling was grown by "Pic" Thompson of Bartow. The Best Miniature was grown by Monroe's Hibiscus Hursery - a "Mahogony".

-O-

* + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + * + *

PAGANO NURSERY

4015 - 74th Avenue (Park Blvd) Pinellas Park, Florida

HIBISCUS

Lots of them from $1.00 up

Closed Tuesdays